141E above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solverey and reliability and honorable dealing, they have business entirely upon their real merits. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below year, and are every way more reliable and permanent than raitrond, bank, and other social, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and flable, in times of years, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-stide statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand, sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital insic the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with enable need they are the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates thar, can be done by Mintual Companies, and a creating given instead of a monortainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid. cla, St. Crox and New England actual, and an endless variety of fine imported Wines. The best brands of Champagne, London Porter and Scotch Ale, Muir's East lucks Pale Ale in jugs, which will be found a most excellent drink for invalids. Current Wine, in bottles or on draught. GEN, WOOL'S LETTER TO A FRIEND IN WASH INGTON.

TROY, Sunday Dec. 30, 1860.

My DEAR Sir .- South Carolina, after twenty-seven years, Mr. Rhett says thirty years, of constant and increasing effort by her leaders to induce her to secede, has declared herself out of the Union; and this, too, without the slightest wrong or injustice done her people on the part of the govern-ment of the United States. Although she may have seized the revenue cutter, raised her treasonable Palmetto flag over the United States arsenal, the custom house, post office, Castle Pinckney and Fort Moultrie, she is not out of the Union nor beyond the pale of the United States. Before she can get out of their jurisdiction or control, a reconstruction of the constitution must be had or civil war ensue. In the latter case, it would require no prophet to foretell the re-

It is reported that Mr. Buchanan has received informally the commissioners appointed by the rebels of South Carolina to pointed by the revers of South Carolina to negotiate for the public property in the harbor of Charleston, and for other purposes. It is also reported that the president disapproved the conduct of Major Anderson, who being satisfied that he would not be able to efend Fort Moultrie with the few men under his command, wisely took possession of Fort Sumpter, where he could protect himself and the country from the disgrace which might have occurred if he had remained in Fort Moultrie. Being the commander in harbor, he had the right to occupy Fort Sumpter, an act which the safety of the Union, as well as his own honor, demanded. It is likewise stated that apprehensions are entertained that Major Anderson will be re-quired to abandon Fort Sumpter and re-oc-cupy Fort Moultrie. There can be no foundation for such apprehensions, for sure ly the president would not surrender the citadel of the harbor of Charleston to rebels Fort Sumpter commands the entrance and in a few hours could demolish Fort Moul trie. So long as the United States keeps possession of this fort, the independence of South Carolina will only be in name and not in fact. If, however, it should be surrendered to South Carolina, which I do not apprehend, the smothered indignation of the free states would be roused beyond con-

It would not be in the power of any one to restrain it. In twenty days two hundred thousand men would be in readiness to take vengeance on all who would betray the Union into the hands of its enemies. Be assured that I do not exaggerate the feelings of the people. They are already sufficiently excited at the attempt to dissolve the Union for no other reason than that they constitutionally exercised the most precious right conferred upon them of voting for the person whom they considered the most worthy and best qualified to fill the office of President. Fort Sumpter, therefore, ought not, and I presume, will not, be delivered over to South Carolina.

I am not, however, pleading for the free states, for they are not in danger, but for the Union and the preservation of the cottor states. Those who sow the wind must ex pect to reap the whirlwind. The leaders of South Carolina could not have noticed that we live in an age of progress, and that all Christendom is making rapid strides in the march of civilization and freedom. If they had, they would have discovered that the announcement of every victory obtained by the hero of the nineteenth century, Garibal-MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

Janesville, May 8th; 1830. di, in favor of the oppressed of Italy, didnot fail to electrify every American heart with joy and gladness. "Where liberty States government? Would the separation of the south from the north give greater se curity to slavery than it has now under the constitution of the Union? What security would they have for the return of runaway slaves? I apprehend none, whiist the num ber of runaways would be greatly augmented, and the difficulties of which slaveholders compiain would be increased tenfold. However much individuals might condomn slavery, the free states are prepared to sustain and defend it as guaranteed by the consti-

In conclusion, I would avoid the bloody and desolating example of the Mexicar States. I am now, and forever, in favor of the Union, its preservation, and the rigid maintenance of the rights and interests of the states, individually as well as collective-Yours, &c., JOHN E. WOOL.

GENERAL WOOL TO GENERAL CASS. [Private.]

TROY, Dec. 6, 1860.

Mr DEAR GENERAL:—Old associations and former friendship induce me to venture efall in want of anything in this line, feeling confident to address to you a few words on the state of the country. My letter is marked private, because I am not authorized to address you officially.

I have read with pleasure the Presidents

Message. South Carolina says she intends to leave the Union. It would seem that she is neither to be conciliated or comforted. I command the Eastern Department, which includes South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi. You know me well. I have ever been a firm, decided, faithful and devoted friend of my country. If I can ail the President to preserve the If I can aid the President to preserve the Union, I hope he will command my ser-vices. It will never do for him or you to leave Washington without every star in this Union is in its place. Therefore, no time should be lost in adopting measures to defeat those who are conspiring against the Union. Hesitancy or delay may be no less fatal to the Union than to the President, or your own high standing as a statesman. It seems to we that troops should be sent to Charleston to man the forts in that harbor. You have eight companies at Fort Monroe, Va. Three or four of these companies should be sent without a moment's de-lay to Fort Moultrie. It will save the Un-ion, and the President much trouble. It is to send at this time troops to that har; hor would produce great excitement among the people. That is noneense, when the people are as much excited as they can be, and the leaders are determined to execute ple are as much excited as they can be, and the leaders are determined to execute their long meditated purpose of separating the State from the Union. So long as you command the enterance to the city of Charleston, South Carolina cannot separate herself from the Union. Do not leave the forts in the harbor in a condition to induce an attempt to take possession of them. South Carolina should take them, it might, as he anticipates, induce other States to join resident to send at once three or four companies of artillery to Fort Moultrie. Union can be preserved, but it requires firm, decided, prompt and energetic measures on the part of the president. He has only to exert the power conferred upon him by the constitution and laws of congress, and all will be safe, and he will prevent a civil war, which never fails to call forth all the base passions of the human heart. If a separa tion should take place, you may rest assured blood would flow in torrents, and Senator. Seward'scirrepressible conflict: will, be brought to a conclusion much: sooner than he could possibly have anticipated. Let me conjure you to save the Union, and thereby avoid the bloody and desolating example of the states of Mexico. A separa tion of the states will bring with it the des-olation of the cotton states, which are unprepared for war. Their weakness will be ound in the number of their slaves, with but few of the essentials to carry on war, whilst the free states have all the elements and materials for war, and to a greater ex-tent than any other people on the face of ous south from pestilence, famine and deso-Peaceable secession is not to be lation. thought of. Even if in should take place in three months we would have a bloody war on our hands.

A Better Front.

Our telegraphic report to day is of an interesting and more cheering character than some of the despatches we have heretofore received. President Buchanan is showing a better front to the disunionists. He has, by some process, been brought to a point where he shows some little evidence of sanity and machood. If he will now kick Thompson out of the cabinet, who seems to act as if he represented the sovereign state of Mississippi, and his disunion associates, the "Old Public Functionary" may yet descend to his grave with the charity that the imbecility of a dotard may extend to his memory, relieved of the infamy of an intentional traitor.

Method in their Madness.

Insane and infatuated as the southern secessionists appear to be, there is still method in their madness. While they withdraw their representatives from the lower house in congress, they keep their members in the senate, where they can obstruct or defeat every measure necessary for the efficiency of the administration of the government, or essential even to its existence. While federal judges resign in the states and remove even the semblance of a federal court to punish offences cognisable by that court, members of the cabinet hold on to their places with the tenacity of a depleted leech to distribute arms to outlaws and plunder the public treasury. While conventions decree the severance of a state from the Union and assume the highest powers of a distinct government, subordinate officers maintain their allegiance to the authority from which their superiors have seceded, for the sole purpose of enjoying and realizing benefits they cannot themselves furnish. While the mass of the people are incited to rebellion, office-holders among that people are drawing fat salaries and making their living from the power they defy and whose authority they dispute.

It seems to us that there is a meanness and a degradation in such a course which every high-minded man should scorn, or a tampezing with the federal government to which that government should put an effectual stop. Either the benefits the rebels desire to retain should be yielded by them, or the whole state should return to its discarded allegiance. As the case now stands, it is too much like the jocky on the race course, or the sharper at a bargain.-"Southern chivalry" had already sank low enough in public contempt for the reputation of its claimants, without adding this additional dead weight upon its pompous pretensions. "Be a man or a mouse" is a maxim these arrogant secessionists may beneficially consider. Assume all the responsibilities and difficulties of a revolution, or give up the claim to patriots and resistants of oppression.

THE ARKANSAS SENATOR.—The Membhis Avalanche says of the new U.S. senator elected by the legislature of Arkansas: "Dr. Mitchel is a consistent democrat. He was defeated for the national house of representatives by the Hon. E. W. Gantt in the recent election. In answer to questions prepounded to him he maintained the unqualified right of secession, and contended that the election of Lincoln justified secession."

this Dr. Mitchell can take a seat in the senate after the event has occurred which he declared would be a sufficient justification for previously counseled, and embarrass or destroy the government under which he holds | invitation? a high position. A square room inside stone walls, with grated windows, a sentinel waching the door, is a much more appropriate place for him than a seat in one of the council chambers of the nation.

UNION SAVING .- The following, from the Charleston Mercury, shows what an idea the Secessionists have of saving the Union.— pamphlet form, passed from hand to hand We take the italics as we find them. Gov. Stewart says in his message that he deprecates The secession of South Carolina, and that the people of that state would feel more sympathy with the movement, had it originated in states that have suffered annoyance from depredations upon. their slave property.

A SIGNIFICANT FACT.—There are 35 cities in the Union each containing over 20,000 inhabitants. Of all these, Charleston, S. C., alone shows a decrease since the census of 1850, having lost 2,791. Which is the most prosperous condition of society, that which dignifies, or that which degrades labor? Look at Charleston and answer!

Rock county ought to be able to boast of a teacher's organization equal to any in in the country, but as yet she certainly does not. In republicanism, agriculture and "infernal improvements," as Mrs. Partington calls them, she leads her neighbors; but in educational matters she makes little. comparative progress, and is content with a poverty-stricken and deplorable standard.

The standard of popular education may be raised, in a very few years, fifty per cent. above its present position by an efficiently managed and generally supported county association. Teachers are apt to grow rusty or conceited by isolation; they need occasional burnishing, and one of the best means of "taking the nonsense out of a man"-as Emerson has it-is furnished by the state and county associations.

Town superintendents are, too generally, troubled with chronic rustiness, and are glad of an opportunity to "burnish up" their mental machinery, and secure a correct standard by which to measure aspiring pedagogues; and if the people would pay more attention to the election of competent school officers and wide-awake teachers. there would be less need for republican tar barrels and "wide-awake" torches, and the political hurran of vive la Railsplitter! school teacher!" But enough in this direction.

As to the coming annual meeting: The letter above referred to suggests Milton as the place, and the fourth week (23d to 25th) in January next as the time for holding it. I would suggest that since the association has favored the northern and western sections of the county with its presence, it would be well to hold the next meeting in the southern or eastern portion. Clinton or Shopiere would perhaps be the most accessible to all parts of the county, and therefore at one of these places the meeting should evidently be held.

I do not know what may be the accommodations at either of these places in the way of a room of sufficient size, but it is to be presumed that either can afford a comfortable hall. If the coming session is as well attended as the first, a large room will be needed. Outside of Janesville, the largest hall in the county is the chapel of the Evansville Seminary; next to this is that of Milton Academy-at either of which the crisis yesterday, Mr. Hamilton of Texas, places the association would meet with a submitted a proposition in favor of calling a We would just like to know with what places the association would meet with a degree of decency or propriety a man like cordial reception and generous support, if it is thought best to hold its session at either of them.

BORDER STATES' COMPROMISE.

: Washington, Jan. 6. The Crittenden Compromise seems to be gaining friends, who entertain the opinion that if it were fairly presented to the people, it would be accepted by them as a basis of settlement. They resolved to remain here, awaiting the action of their States.

New York, Jan. 8. The Herald's Washington correspond ence says: The Border State Convention's olan of adjustment appears to have at first met with considerable favor, and it was thought likely that the President would commend it to the attention of both Houses of Congress, but the caucus of Republicans after full and free discussion upon the merits of the Border State programme, decided adversely to any and all compromises whatever, and agreed simply to press forward the regular business of the session, and then adjourn sine die.

The troops ordered into the field by the government, are said to be suffering severely from the exposure incident to their new mode of life and march. Sickness prevails among them, while the merchants are without business, and the mechanics without work.

Strange as it may appear, I am now to tell you that the President elect has given a "carte blanche" to Senator Seward and Thurlow Weed to agree upon any plan of settlement that New York and Pennsylvania can stand together upon.

For the Daily Gazette. A Suggestion for the Public Meeting on Friday Night.

Ameng the many thoughts that crowded into my brain last night, after having read the notice for a public meeting to sustain "the constitution as it is, the union of the states now and forever, as well as the enfercement of the laws," was, that it was suggested by the present state of political affairs in the country. The tenor of the notice, as well as a local item announcing that thirty-three guns would be fired in honor of Major Anderson, because of his acts proving devotion to the Union, led me to think the people of Janesville especially devoted to the preservation of the Union, and the maintenance of the rights of all citizens of the United States, as well as those within the border lines of her state.

After cogitating freely upon that side of the subject, I took a peep at the other side, and there I saw a quotation—"Barking dogs never bite." The application I made of that axiom was, that we are not, in the full sense of the word, a law and order people. Our national and state laws but partially protect us, because we have not that with which to ensure protection-a military organization. The courts may decree, and local authorities attempt to enforce, but what do their efforts avail when an excited populace resist? The lynching of Mayberry is a case in point. Nothing but well directed military power can prevent and queil such outbreaks. True republicanism embraces the doctrine of protection to authority by law as well as to individual persons. Rock county prides herself upon being the truest and firmest advocate and supporter of that kind of republicanism, and yet she has not a man under arms, nor does a moiety of the state military accourrements find a place within her limits; yershe is called upon each year to pay a proportion of tax for the support of military organizations in other parts of the state, which rightfully should be applied within her own county. Situated at the county seat, in a place wide-known for enterprise in business and the nucleus about which centers the doctrines of our country's fathers, we are as widely known for lacking the necessary power for sustaining those doctrines when that power is demanded by any emergency in which national rights or the rights of an individual are involved.

Were Wisconsin called upon to furnish quota of men to prevent the threatened taking of the national capital by southern desperadoes, and perhaps the assasination of the president elect, with what shame would this county, aye, Janesville, herself, acknowledge that she had not a soldier within her borders to do honor to the vote which has placed our standard so worthily in the hands of a true, pure statesman, and protect the constitutional rights of the free men who have committed none other of fence than that of exercising the inclienable right of free suffrage, guaranteed by the constitution of the United States, as well as the right invested by the people in him to take the chair and administer the laws in accordance with republican belief.

Citizens, think of this, and on Friday evening when you are talking about "law and order," take some action towards forming a military company, or two of them, or in some way encourage the few young men who are endeavoring to build up one, -the better way, of course, by joining them, and thereby show that your professed love of the "constitution" is grounded on something more than talk,

A MILITARY MAN.

Am Ann Comport. The Springfield, Mass. Republican reveals another method by which the treasonable outbreak in the by the active use of the patronage, money and means of the General Government, ap-plied to this end by members of the Cabinet. During the year 1860 there have been removed from the armory in Springfield. and deposited for safe keeping in other ar senals of the United States, 135,430 government arms; all, except 20,400, sent to arsenals at the South, and this latter numcasionally made to the several States of the quota to which each State is entitled for its own militia. For that object there have been issued to the States during the year 2,4991. As arms are not in the habit of coming North, it is interesting to know what has been done, during the year, with the supply in the armory at Harper's Ferry.

PLANT PEAS DEEP .- The theory recently advocated of planting peas very deep in the earth, in order to prolong the bearing capacity of the rines, has been well tested, and found to be correct. A farmer plowed a furrow beam deep, then seattered the seed-peas at the bottom, after which he turned a deep furrow upon them with his plow, covering them to the depth of from twelve to fourteen inches. They pushed equality in, or independence out of the Union. He recommends the organization of militia, and the purchase of arms for the state. He leaves the bank suspension penalties to the decision of the legislature. such a result will uniformly be realized John H. Savage have left this city for Ken- from this plan, and we can see no good reason why it should not, the culture of ing in size any in New York or Philadel-phia. The front on Washington street is 270 feet and its depth is 227 feet. It will easily accommodate 1200 guests, and the boarders can take a walk of a mile and a half before breakfast, by going through the several halls, no one of them twice. The establishment has been leased by the Messrs. Leland Brothers, of New York, and will be inished and arranged under the supervision of Mr. George W. Pearson, for many years the superintendent of the Revere House in Boston.

HORRIBLE DESTITUTION IN ENGLAND. Out of 60,000 men, women and children engaged in the manufacture of ribbons at Coventry, England, and the neighboring hamlets, 40,000 are at present unemployed and thousands are positively starving. The family of Maj. Anderson, consisting of his wife and three children, are stopping at the Brevoort House, in Fifth avenue, N Y., where they have spent several winters.

which it is got up, may not be out of place. The school, in aid of which this festival is to take place, has been in operation very nearly four years; the average number in attendance during that time, has been about 200 children, who receive their edueation gratuitously, and the progress which they have made will compare favorably with that of any other school in the state.

We hope our citizens will, by their presence, give their aid and encouragement to so laudable an undertaking, and we doubt not that the managers will make every effort to render it as pleasant and agreeable in the office, and if an error is committed by the office an evening, as we are assured a contribuan evening, as we are assured a contribution to the education of youth is in accordance with the wishes of those who will attend.

We have also been told by the committee that they have engaged Mr. Estes' excellent band from Beloit, and we intend to have the pleasure of seeing the dancers on the occasion.

BRYANT & STRATTON'S CHAIN OF MER-CANTILE COLLEGES .-- Messrs. Bryant & Stratton, as founders and proprietors of the national chain of mercantile colleges, located in New York, Philadelphia, Albany, Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, Chicago and St. Louis, are widely known and highly esteemed. These institutions supply an important want in a commercial country like ours. There are great numbers of young men who desire to perfect themselves in business knowledge and prepare for business life, but find no facilities for so doing in the literary institutions. These mercantile colleges afford all such an opportunity to acquire the preparation they seek, whether independently of, or supplemental to other studies. Their course of instruction is thorough, without being unnecessarily protracted, and is adapted to its purpose. These gentlemen have recently prepared a series of new text books for the use of their colleges, consisting of a work on commercial computations, a work on commercial law and three works upon book-keeping. We wish them all the success their energy Body Recovered .- The body of Daniel Parks, who was buried in the well on the well on the premises of Mr. Neyhart, was reached and recovered yesterday about sun- English Figured Cobourgs down. He was found ninety feet below the surface, and within ten feet of the bottom of the well, and must have been carried down forty feet, as he was about fifty feet from the surface when he was caught by the falling earth. When found he was bent almost double, his neck, back and one of his legs broken. The work of digging for him commenced a week ago yesterday.

ACCIDENT AND WARNING .- Last evening a young lad named Lehan, son of a widow woman, met with an accident while riding down the court house hill which should be a warning to the crowd of boys who resort to that place for their daily pastime. While coming down "full speed," he struck three blocks of ice piled upon each other, knocked the middle block from its place between the two others, and cut his face very severely-opening the flesh to the bone on the forehead and cutting through to the bone the length of the upper lip.

The sixth annual election of officers of Water Witch Engine Co. No. 2 took place at their hall last evening, and resulted as follows :- C. P. King, Foreman ; Henry Richards, Ass't Foreman; Adam Skelly, Hose Captain; A. R. Johnson, Clerk; Rufus P. Young, Treasurer; Henry Peters, Co. Engineer: Hiram D. Nash, Steward. Trustee to the fire department association, John C. Spencer.

ACCIDENT .-- To-day, at noon, while the saiute in honor of Major Auderson was fir ing, the gun prematurely discharged at the second round. Patrick Barnes was loading the gun, and Daniel McDougal holding the vent. Just as Barnes was withdrawing the ramrod, and had it nearly out of the muzzle, the discharge took place. The right hand of Barnes was burned from the wrist down, and the fleshy part on the lower side a good deal lacerated. The thumb of Mc-Dongal was opened and hadly torn. Their wounds were dressed by Drs. Treat and Gregory, who report, we are happy to learn, that neither will be likely to suffer any permanent injury, though their wounds are quite severe.

This accident stopped the further progress of the salute.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SECESSION AND SOLVENCY.—While South Carolina is scraping together a few hundred thousands on the Austrian plan of forced loans, New York, which put a million and a quarter of her bonds on the market in the midst of the panic, gets proposals for four times what she wants, at a premium of 12 per cent. on a seven per cent. loan. The bids were opened at Albany last Thursday.

Capitalists appear to appreciate the relative value of state securities in these times. Palmetto stock away down to zero, and no tekers. Empire State stock at a premium, in the midst of a political and commercial crisis almost unparalleled.

Jardly Realized.

Hi'ad'n 'orrible 'eadache this afternoon, hand I stepped into the hapothocaries hand says hi to the man, "Can you hease me of an 'eadache?" "Does it hache 'ard," says ". "Hexceedingly," says hi, hand upon that 'e gave me a Cephalic Pill, hand 'pon me 'onor it cured me so quick that I 'ardly realized I 'ad 'all an 'eadache.

AFF Harbacha is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a saignard intended to give notice of disease which might be thorwise escape attention, till too late to be rismedied; and its indications should naver be may letted. Hoodaches may be classified under two mines, viz. Symptomatic and fidiopathic. Symptomatic hendsche is exceedingly common and is the procursor of a great variety of diseases, abong which are Apoplexy, their, Rheumathan and all febrile diseases. In its notwood form it is sympathete of diseases of the stomach constituting fich headache, of worms, constipation and other diserders of the bowels, as well as renal and uterino affections. Diseases of the heart are very frequently attended with headaches; Amenica and plathors are also affections which frequently occasion headache. Idiopathic headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of nervous headache, sometimes coming on suddenly in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mintul and physical enegies, and in other instances is comes on slowly, heralded by depression of spirite or accretive of the livad, over one or both eyes, and smatchines provoking voming; under this class may made be unused. Nearagita.

For the treatment of either class of headache the Cophalic Pills have been found a sure and safe ramedy, relieving the Lost attac palms in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases of which headache is the unerting index. unerring index.

Bender.—Missus wants you to send her a box of Cephalic Glue, no, a bottle of proposed Fills,—but I'm hinking that's not just it neither; but purhaps ye'll be afther knowing what is is. Ye see site's night duad and gone with the sick headache, and wants some more of that same as relayed her before.

Druggist.—You must mean Spalding's Cephalic Fills.

Bridge.—Ooh! sure now and you're sed it, here's the quarter and give me the pills and dont be all day about it aither.

Constipution or Costiveness.

No one of the "many ills flesh is helr to" is so prevalent, so little understood, and so niuch neglected as contiveners. Often originating in carolesaness, or sedentry habits; it is regarded as a slight disorder of too little consequence to excise anxiety, while in reality it is the precursor and companion of many of the most fatal and dangerons disease, and unless early cralicated it will bring the sufferr to an untimely grave. Among the lighter evits of which contiveness is the usual attendant are Headsthe, Colic, Rheumatism, Youl Breath, Pilez and others of like mature, while a long train of tright full states such as Malignant Fevers, Abesses, Dysentary, Diarther, Dysenyula, Apoplexy, Epilepsy, Paralysis, Hysteris, Hypechondrisals, hielancholy and Insunity, first indicate their presence in the system by this alarming symptom. Not unfrequently the discuss named originate in Consupation, but take on an independent existence unless the cause is eradicated in an early stage. From all these considerations it follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever it occurs, and no person should neglect to get a hox of Cephalle Pills on the first appearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expet the Insiduous approaches of disease and destroy this dangerous foe to human life.

A Real Blessing.

Physician.—Well, hirs. Jones, how is your headache?

Mrs. Jones.—Gone! Doctor, all gone! the pill you sent cured me in just twenty minutes, and I wish you would send more so that I can have them heady.

Physician.—You can get them at any Druggiets.—Call for Caphalic Pills, I find they never fail, and I reducing the property of the physician of the physician. commend them in all cases of headache.

Mrs. Jones.—I shall send for a box directly, and shall tell all my suffering friends, for they are a real offering.

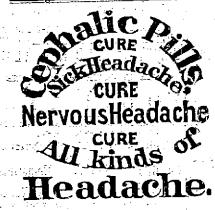

Twenty Millions of Dollars Saven.—Mr. Spalding has sold two millions of bottles of his celebrated Prepared Glue, and it is estimated that each bottle saves at least ten dollars worth of broken furniture, thus makingen negregate of twenty millions of dollars reclaimed from total leas by this valuable invention. Having made his glue a household word, he now proposes to do the world still greater service by curing all the aching heads with his Cephalle Pilis, and if they are as good on his glue, headache will soon vanish away like suow in July.

For Oven Excirming, and the mental care and anality incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of nervous headabe. The disordered state of mind and bady incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Enferers by this disorder can always containspeedy relief from these distressing attacks, by using one of the Cephalic Pilla whenever the symptoms appear. It quies the overnaked brain, and scottes the strained and jarring nerves, and relaxes the tonsion the stometh which always arcompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

Fact Women Knowing.—Spalding's Cephalic Pills are a certain cure for Sick Headache, Blibms Headache Nervous Headache, Costiveness and General Debility.

GREAT Discovers.—Among the most important of all the great medical discoveries of this ago may be considered the system of raccination for protection from Small Pox, the Cephalic Pill for relief of hendsche, and the use of Quinius for the prevention of favers, either of which is a sure specific, whose benefits will be experienced by suffering humanity long after their discoverers are forgotten.

E Did you ever have the sick headache? Do you remember the throbbing temples, the fevered brow, the leathing and disgust at the sight of food. How totally unfit you were for pleasure, conversation or study.—One of the Caphalic Pills would have relieved you from all the suffering which you then experienced. For this and other purposes you should always have a box of them on hand to use as occasion requires.

By the use of these pills the periodic attacks of Nerrous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They saldom fail in removing Neuren and Headacha to which females are so subject. They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Coshive
